[I have received today from Adams Express a letter and coin(s) which you state was purchased at my sale... Why was the letter sent to me?]

New York Oct 4. 1882

Messrs S. H. & H. Chapman

Gentlemen.

I have received this day per "Adams Express" a package inclosing a letter and [redacted] which you state was purchased at my sale. I have examined the Coins and Compared them with the Catalogue and find that they correspond with the Catalogue and find that they are Correctly described, other and expert coin men have also made an examination and come to the same conclusion —

Why is the letter sent to me? Your place if you have any complaint to make is to send these things to the parties making the bids for you.

It is a matter I have nothing to do with and as long as you accurately described in the Catalogue

I do not intend to have any thing to do with it—I return your Coins herewith to act as in your Judgment you deem proper— I hold that I am in no way responsible from absolutely appears to be no error of mine from your own statement

Yours &c
